Young Adult Services' Career Coaching Program YMCA OF GREATER SEATTLE

It's about more than getting a job! Starting Wednesday, October 14th, Young Adult Services' Career Coaching Program is teaming-up with one of its Career Coaches and Seattle Central Community College Instructor, Karl Frunz, to provide young adults with a six-week workshop for marketing their skills and obtaining employment. Through hands-on, skill building exercises, young adults will gain and practice the abilities to:

- Define transferrable & saleable skills to write a dynamic resume
- Create a professional on-line profile and find & evaluate job listings
- Submit thorough on-line applications and master persuasive interviewing skills

WHEN: Every Wednesday evening starting 10/14/15—11/18/15

TIME: 6:30 pm –8:00 pm

LOCATION: 2100 24th Avenue South
Room 2C (on the second floor)
Seattle, WA 98144
